Sandra Chinn

Sandra Chinn, was born in Berkeley, California and began ballet training with Jane Stamps in Albany, California. She is a graduate of the National Academy of Arts (Champaign Ill.), and continued studies at the Joffrey Ballet School American Ballet Center, and intensively with independent teacher, Maggie Black. In New York City, she was a company member of Dennis Wayne's Dancers, Finis Jhung's Chamber Ballet USA, and Bob Bowyer's American Ballet Comedy. She was featured in the off-Broadway dance show "Funny Feet", for which she received a Drama Desk Award nomination for "Outstanding Featured Actress in a Musical". Teacher training includes seminars in Vaganova technique with Karen Morell. San Francisco Bay Area teaching credits include ODC Dance Commons, Shawl-Anderson Dance Center, Berkeley Ballet Theater, Berkeley City Ballet, and IDEA project. Most recently, she has taught for dance companies such as ODC/Dance, Paul Taylor Dance Company and Matthew Bourne's New Adventures (Nutcracker!, Swan Lake, and Edward Scissorhands).

Advanced ballet class with Sandra Chinn begins with a simple, thorough barre which allows emphasis on placement and alignment, without force. Following, is a center designed to move the dancers into spacious, expansive movement. Holistic and respectful to the individual needs of each dancer, it is appealing to people from all disciplines of dance.
